

Animals in the News

Animals make news all the time. A dog might rescue a child from drowning in a stream, or a cat stuck up in a tree needs a neighborhood fire department to rescue it. Pick an interesting news story in today's newspaper. Read the story carefully. Notice how the headline captures the central idea of the story. See if the news story answers the five W's — who, what, when, why and where. Then answer the 5 W's on the lines below. Can you make up a news story about an animal, either your own real pet or an imaginary one? Then write a news story answering the five W questions on the back of this sheet.
